The Australia brought Jim Dodd another ocean of beer for the patrons of the Pantheon to drink up in his library. John and Harry will draw to the taste of all.

W. C. Peacock & Co. have imported per Australia an invoice of the famous Buffalo draught beer, which will be served in the Royal, Pacific, and Cosmopolitan saloons. Checks for Pabst beer are good for Buffalo beer.

There is a charm about the Criterion that attracts a steady and unchangeable custom. With Rainier Seattle beer for the thirsty and choice drinks for connoisseurs; with Charley McCarthy as chief, and Charley Andrews and Peter O'Sullivan as courteous and competent assistants all are pleased.

The old look out on the Brewer House was knocked on the head and removed from sight this morning. Carpenter Andersen gave the old gentleman a dig in the ribs with a cold iron. The old chap fell to the ground with a smash. Superintendent Rowell is to be congratulated on giving instructions to C. B. & Co. to have the aged menace put out of sight.

Card of Thanks.

The committee having in charge the arrangements for the obsequies of the late Hon. Joseph K. Nawahi express the deep felt gratitude of the bereaved family and the societies represented by them, to all who so kindly assisted at the homage paid to the deceased. The numerous friends who by their presence and floral offerings showed their sympathy; Wilder's S. S. Co. which conveyed the remains to their last resting at Hilo; E. A. Williams, whose services were highly appreciated; the Government in honoring the deceased and the many who irrespective of political differences assisted in tendering the last honors to a true Hawaiian, are cordially invited.

TO REST.

Nawahi Goes Home and Leaves a Lesson for Those Who Can Read

When the women of a country pay respect to a patriot, one of a few as he may have been, a note of warning is sounded which ought to be heard by the governors of the land. The words and rhythm of a song have more than once overthrown thrones and republics, and the cool courage of women who, in modern times while clamoring for votes across the sea do not vote but control the votes of their friends, are not to be ignored.

The funeral procession to-day of the ex-Minister proved that as a Hawaiian he was not forgotten. He represented a principle existent in the hearts of Hawaiians, and especially of womanhood. The mothers reared us and will protect the autonomy of the country. When they speak the word the men will follow. The men of other nationalities, who joined with them, will some day speak very decidedly at the ballot box.

There was no necessity for Minister Hatch to suggest to the Government that there might be an uprising or for the keeping of prisoners in jail, for the Opposition controls the country in the interest of peace, and the women of Honolulu proved the fact to-day. But, gentlemen, our temporary rulers, play fair or beware! Read a little of history shown to you by your grandfather, if you had one, and reflect.

THE FUNERAL.

Every inch of the large residence and grounds occupied by the late Joseph Nawahi was filled at noon to-day by Hawaiian mourners. At 12:30 the funeral services were opened by the singing of appropriate hymns. The Rev. E. S. Timoteo in eloquent language spoke the last words over the departed patriot. Precisely at 1:30 the casket was carried to the hearse by the pall bearers and the procession formed in the order formerly announced.

E. A. William in a carriage drawn by four black horses headed the sad march to the steamer which is to carry the remains of Nawahi to his last resting place on the island where first he saw light. A detachment of police under the command of Senior Captain Robert Parker followed next. Then came the Government band under the leadership of Professor Berger, playing dirges and requiems.

Following came the Women's Patriotic League numbering several hundreds; then the officers of the Portuguese Political Societies headed by Mr. J. M. Vivas, and then the members of the Hawaiian Societies.

The Rev. E. S. Timoteo in a carriage preceded the officers of the Hui Kalaiaina and Aloha Aina who drew the hearse. The pall bearers were: J. O. Carter, David Dayton, S. K. Kane, F. J. Testa, C. Creighton, S. M. Kaaukai, J. K. Kaunamano, L. W. P. Kanealii, R. W. Wilcox, E. K. Lilikalani, W. C. Achi and J. L. Kaulukou.

After the hearse followed the chief mourners, and a large number of relatives and friends in carriages. The funeral was the largest seen in Honolulu since the day when King Kalakaua was buried.

Arriving at the wharf the casket was carried on board the steamer Hawaii, which leaves at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Hilo. Mrs. Nawahi and her children take the body of a beloved husband and father to its last resting place.

INCIDENTS.

It is interesting to record that from early yesterday until the funeral took place, the remains of Mr. Nawahi were carefully watched by his friends. Kahili bearers waved their plumes over the body of their loved friend, and many were the Hawaiian songs sung over him. The Kamehameha boys took the lead in the mele.

Two Cabinet Ministers, one of whom was the Attorney-General, and the other the Minister of Foreign Affairs were present.

Visit the College.

The French Consul and Commissioner, Mr. Voisson, the Chancellor, Mr. Vizzavona, Captain Bayle, Commanding the French man-of-war Duguay-Trouin, and several officers visited the St. Louis College this morning. The distinguished party was received by the dignitaries of the Church and the principal of the college while the college band played the Marseillaise and the Hawaiian anthem. The visitors expressed themselves in the highest terms of admiration for the college and its management, and Captain Bayle extended a cordial invitation to the boarders of the college and teachers to visit his ship this afternoon, an invitation which was accepted. The boys will thoroughly enjoy their visit to the interesting war vessel.

W. W. DIMOND'S

Novelties in household goods draw customers to the up-to-date stores; their presence on the shelves is an indication of push and energy combined with enterprise, the foundation to every successful business house. We find pleasure and profit in getting out of the old rut and bringing a few sunshine novelties into the store.

One of the woes of the average housekeeper lies in the can used to hold kerosene for the lamps. Frequently she finds the floor discolored by grease spots and disgust follows. One of our new Globe oil cans will obviate this and for very little money.

Crown fryers are as well known in the States as Crown bakers, nearly everyone whose stove has not a broiler attachment uses one because the result is practically the same. They are exclusive with us.

In the warm weather (and that means nearly all the year 'round with us), nothing is so refreshing as an ice cream or a sherbet. The Lightning Freezer excels all others in the making of these delicacies. We sell this in preference to any other.

After your dessert a cup of delicious coffee is almost necessary—you know what muggy coffee is? By the use of a Princess coffee pot the coffee is absolutely clear and free from grounds. When the berries are ground in an Enterprise mill such as we sell and cooked in a "Princess" nothing can be better.

You've read about chafing dishes, possibly owned one; those made of Aluminium such as we offer are the best, and in the end the cheapest.
